

Museum of Fire
Articles on Historic Firefighting Equipment

Medals and Medal Stamps

This medal was instituted to recognise outstanding acts of bravery by firemen serving in the pre-war Edinburgh Fire Brigade. It was worn with a medal ribbon in the City of Edinburgh colours of black and white.

The Museum has four medals on display, and these were worn by the following members of the Edinburgh Fire Brigade, Messers Swanston, Imrie, Grinton and Ovenstone. The dies for the medals were presented by the firm of Alex Kirkwood of Forth Street, Edinburgh who struck the medals for the Brigade.

It is planned to give the citations for each medal in future articles.

